

Week Six Verse - February 1-8, 2015

In the midst of all circumstances, we need to rely on what we believe God to be. God reveals himself to use through His creation, His Word and through Jesus. Jesus came to earth to explain God to us.

It can be very difficult to believe the TRUTH with so many "world views" but hopefully through this study and through this journey of faith we are taking together, we can re-align our focus and lay down our roots so that we can grow strong.

I will never tell you what to believe or not believe. Here are some important truths I believe and have helped me in my faith:

- God is relational and want to have a relationship with me. It is not about religion.
- God does not watch from "afar" but is near and involved is every detail of my life.
- God is not waiting to judge me for what I have done. God does not "get back at me" or "Is mad at me" He is mad ABOUT me and is waiting for me to ask for forgiveness.

The verse to focus on for the first week of February is:

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind." James 1:5-6 (NIV)

Week Six

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind." James 1:5-6 (NIV)

What do you believe? Are you believing what the world says or in what God says?

Based on your answers above, what are you struggling with OR maybe what struggles have you overcome? If you are struggling with God, It is okay. Remember he won't be mad at you because He is MAD about you. He knows your struggles but He wants to hear from you. If you have overcome an obstacle and it has strengthened your belief maybe journal about it and remember to thank Him for it!

What can you ask God for this week?
