

March 2016 - Devote
Week 11

“Blessed are those who obey his covenant laws.
They trust in him with all their hearts.” Psalm 119:2 NIRV

This is a copy of what I journaled in my binder today based on this week’s verse.

The 119th Psalm is the longest Psalm and chapter in the Bible. History tells that it may have been written as a repetitive meditation on the beauty of God’s word and how it helps us stay pure and grown in faith. The theme of the 119th Psalm reminds us that God’s word is truth. We must stay focused and devote ourselves to Him no matter how bad the world or circumstances become.

This week I encourage you to focus and devote your time to the truths and promises of God.

This is a piece of art that coordinates with the new DEVOTE kit. Consider printing it out on cardstock and creating with it. You can add mixed media elements to it, die cut it, doodle on it, journal on the reverse side. Trim into strips, laminate and create book marks. Punch a hole at the top and thread coordinating pieces of embroidery floss or yarn through it! I would LOVE to see what you create so make sure to use the hashtag #documentedfaithdevote
