The Focus word for September is Practice

The verse for week 37, Sept. 6 - 12

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men." Colossians 3:23

WHATEVER you do (which means anything you do), work at it with all your heart and for the LORD…not for Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest, magazine articles or anything else.

This life and everything that comes with it takes practice and more practice and then a little more practice. Truth is life takes continual practice. We will get it wrong, get things right, fall down, take detours, look for shortcuts, celebrate milestones, get frustrated but we do not give up.
We practice life, we practice love, we practice patience and we practice a bunch of other things that we should (and shouldn't do)

We are going to do a whole lot of practicing this month and then hopefully set some new habits and break some bad ones by practicing WHO we are doing it for.

Changing that focus alone changes EVERYTHING…I know, I have done it and continue to practice it.

What are you practicing RIGHT NOW?
Here is my truth - I am TRYING to practice patience with a few situations as I type this and well, I am failing (but not giving up!). The enemy wants me to fail so that I can continually be bitter and impatient (which is opposite of what Jesus teaches us to do)

Time for a little moral inventory. You can jot your notes down here, journal about it, create art based on it or simply take some time talking to God about it. (psstt..He already knows but He wants to hear it from you)

What do you need to work at??? Here is a reminder of the verse:

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men." Colossians 3:23
